The Wake Forest School of Law Community Law Clinic is a clinical education program launched in 2009 at Wake Forest University School of Law. It provides law students with an opportunity to develop skills needed to practice in the increasingly complex legal and regulatory environment they will encounter as professionals. The CLC also uses the resources and expertise of Wake Forest University to enhance community development efforts in Winston-Salem, Forsyth County and the region. The CLC has assisted clients with hundreds of legal matters since opening in 2009, including those related to:

- Small businesses and startups
- Nonprofits
- Art and intellectual property
- Consumer transactions
